Neuro-Oncology's ISI Impact Factor rises to 5.806

Duke University Press and the editorial office of Neuro-Oncology are pleased to announce that Thomson's ISI Web of Knowledge Journal Citation Report has assigned Neuro-Oncology an ISI Impact Factor of 5.806 for 2007. Solidifying the journal's reputation as the leading journal in its field, the new rating places Neuro-Oncology ahead of its direct peer neuro-oncology journals, establishing it sixth among all ranked clinical neurology journals and sixteenth among other oncology journals.

Neuro-Oncology is the official journal of the Society for Neuro-Oncology, the Japan Society for Neuro-Oncology, the European Association for Neuro-Oncology, and the World Federation of Neuro-Oncology Societies. Dedicated to providing superior and rapid publication of information in all areas of neuro-oncology, the journal contains peer-reviewed articles and reviews, symposia on selected topics, published abstracts of annual meetings, and society news and announcements from around the world.
